

TRIBAL - STATE FOSTER CARE AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, the North Dakota Department of Human Services (hereinafter referred to as the Department) and the Three Affiliated Tribes (hereinafter referred to as the Council) and the Three Affiliated Tribes Tribal Court (hereinafter referred to as the Court) continue to be concerned that proper supervision be exercised over children placed in foster care in which the Department, Council, and Court have an interest and that appropriate periodic services and services on an as needed basis be provided to such children; and

WHEREAS, in the past, the parties to this Agreement have agreed on the development of an appropriate service plan for children in foster care, the Department, through its county administrative units; the Council, through its social services component; and the Court, through its judicial orders; to assure that relevant revisions of 45 CFR 233.110(2) and (3) are met and to assure that such services were not duplicated when placement and care responsibilities for such children were given by the Court to the Council and its social services component; and

WHEREAS, the parties to the Agreement wish to continue the formalizing of such arrangements so as to assure that such legally mandated services and other necessary services were provided to such children pursuant to a child care plan in each instance, which assures that the best interests of such children remain of paramount importance.

WHEREFORE, the Department, Council, and Court agree as follows:

1. That the Court will continue to exercise its jurisdiction of its placement and care responsibilities for all appropriate children and will designate the services provider which, by order of the Court and in accordance with this Agreement, will undertake and continue to provide services.
2. The Council, through its designated agents, shall, when designated to be the service provider, fulfill all of the requirements of North Dakota Department of Human Services Foster Care - Permanency Planning Chapter 624. In addition, they shall undertake and continue to provide services in compliance with 45 CFR 233.110, AFDC Foster Care, as well as Section 427 of Public Law 96-272 for such children, including but not limited to, the following:
 - A. 427 (a) (2) (B) Case Review System
Case Plan

For each child receiving foster care maintenance payments, there is a case plan which is a written document. The case plan includes at a minimum:

- (a) a description of the type of home or institution in which the child is to be placed;
- (b) a discussion of the appropriateness of the placement;
- (c) a discussion of how the responsible agency plans to carry out the judicial determination made with respect to the child in accordance with Section 472 (a) (1) "the removal from the home was a result of a judicial determination to the effect that continuation therein would be contrary to the welfare of the child and effective October 1, 1983 that reasonable efforts of the type described in Section 471 (a) (15) have and will be made."
 - 1. Section 471 (a) (15) states "effective October 1, 1983, provides that, in each case, reasonable efforts will be made (A) prior to the placement of a child in foster care, to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from his home, and (B) to make it possible for the child to return to his home."
- (d) a plan for assuring that the child receives proper care;
- (e) a plan for assuring that services are provided to the child and parents to improve conditions in the parents' home and facilitate return of the child to his own home.
- (f) a plan for assuring that services are provided to the child and foster parents to facilitate return of the child to his own home or the permanent placement of the child and address the needs of the child while in foster care;
- (g) a discussion of the appropriateness of the services that have been provided the child under the plan.

Case Review

The tribal agency will have a case review system which meets the requirements of Section 475 (5) of the Act and ensures that:

- A. The case plan for each child is designed to achieve:
 - 1. Placement in a least restrictive (most family like) setting available, and
 - 2. Placement in closest proximity to the parents' home consistent with the best interest and special needs of the child.
- B. The status of each child will be reviewed periodically but no less frequently than once every six months by either a court or administrative review;
- C. The periodic review will:
 - 1. Determine the continuing need for and appropriateness of the placement;
 - 2. Determine the extent of compliance with the case plan;

3. Determine the extent of progress made toward alleviating or mitigating the case of necessitating the placement in foster care; and
 4. Projects a likely date which the child may be returned home or placed for adoption or legal guardianship.
- D. An administrative review of the following requirements specified in Section 475 (6) are met:
1. The review is open to the participation of the parent(s) of the child, and
 2. The review is conducted by a panel of appropriate persons at least one of whom is not responsible for the case management of, or the delivery of services to, either the child or the parent(s) for the subject of the review.
- E. The Tribal agency applies procedural safeguards with respect to each child in foster care under supervision of the state which assures that:
1. A dispositional hearing is held in a tribal court of competent jurisdiction or by an administrative body appointed or approved by the Court, no later than 18 months after the original placement (and periodically thereafter during the continuation of foster care);
 2. The dispositional hearing determines the future status of the child including whether the child should:
 - a) be returned to the parent(s), or
 - b) be continued in foster care for a specified period, or
 - c) be placed for adoption, or
 - d) because of the child's special needs or circumstances, be continued in foster care on a permanent or long term basis;
 3. Procedural safeguards are applied with respect to parental rights pertaining to:
 - a) removal of child from his or her parents' home
 - b) a change in the child's placement
 - c) any termination effecting visiting privileges of the parents.
 4. The Council and the Court will also comply with the provisions of the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978 and associate federal regulations and the appropriate provisions of the Three Affiliated Tribes insofar as these authorities do not conflict with the authorities cited in paragraph 3, above.
 5. The Council and the Court agree that the Department will continue to monitor the placement of such children, the service plan developed for such children, and the provision of services for such children to assure that the best interests of the child are served, thereby in accordance with federal and state regulations.

6. The Department, Council, and Court agree to continue to cooperate to the utmost in carrying out the intent and purpose of this Agreement.
7. It is mutually agreed that this Agreement may be terminated by either party at any time, with or without cause, by giving 30 days written notice delivered by mail or in person to all parties to this Agreement.

This Agreement shall remain in effect unless so terminated or modified. Dated this 29 day of September, 1983.
